

Sunrise Hospital and Medical Center Names Christopher Mowan as New Chief Operating Officer

Las Vegas, Nevada – Sunrise Hospital and Medical Center is pleased to announce the appointment of Christopher Mowan to the position of Chief Operating Officer. In his new role, Mowan will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the hospital in addition to strategy development and physician relations.

Prior to joining Sunrise, Mowan served as the Chief Operating Officer at Del Sol Medical Center in El Paso, Texas, a full-service acute care hospital specializing in Emergency Medicine, Maternal/Child, Women's Health, Rehabilitation Services, Outpatient Test and Treatment, Bariatric Surgery, Cardiovascular Services and Oncology.

Mowan has been with HCA, which owns Sunrise Hospital and Medical Center and Del Sol Medical Center, for 16 years and has a diverse background in hospital management. He brings significant expertise in operations and patient-centered strategies that will enhance the ever-increasing needs of local and outreach communities.

"As we read about every day, the healthcare industry both locally and nationally is facing some unique challenges," said Sylvia Young president and chief executive officer of Sunrise Hospital and Medical Center. "We are fortunate to bring Chris to Las Vegas. I am confident that with his knowledge and experience he will be a valuable asset as we navigate through these issues while continuing to advance Sunrise Hospital as the medical leader in this region."

Mowan's education credentials include a bachelor's degree in accounting from Indiana University and a master's degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. He is board-certified as a fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives. He also participated in the Greater El Paso Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program.

"In the short time I've been here, it is clear that the talented team of hospital employees and physicians at Sunrise set the standard of high-quality care every day," said Mowan. "I am looking forward to working with all our healthcare providers to continue that mission and provide our patients and the community with the expert care they know and trust."

Mowan, who began his new position on July 6, 2009, replaces Steve Otto who was promoted to Chief Executive Officer at Skyline Medical Center, which is also owned by HCA.

Chris relocated to Las Vegas with his wife, Natalie, and their two daughters.
