

08.08.08 Babies

Pictured: Shemaryah Rothmeyer was born at Sunrise Children's on 08.08.08 at 8:08 a.m. weighing in at 8 lbs 2 ounces.

Bringing the Olympic spirit to the hospital floors on the opening date of the summer games, Sunrise Children's Hospital awards all newborns born on Aug. 8, 2008 with a commemorative gold medal. Proud parents will never forget the day their little one was born, with the special token that proclaims "Born to be great on 8.8.08."

Sunrise Children's Hospital is a dedicated specialty hospital of 244 beds offering comprehensive inpatient and outpatient services for children and expectant mothers. As Nevada's only dedicated children's hospital, Sunrise Children's staff of pediatric experts includes top physicians specialists and sub-specialists in pediatric emergency medicine, cardiology and cardiac surgery, oncology, complex surgery, critical care, forensic maltreatment, obstetrics, and neonatology. The facility's services for healing extend through a family-centered care philosophy, where pediatric and neonate nurses, pharmacists, respiratory/physical therapists, social workers and child life specialists treat various aspects of the patients' lives.

Sunrise Children's Hospital is located at 3186 South Maryland Parkway in Las Vegas. More information is available at www.SunriseChildrensHospital.com.

