Sunrise Children's Hospital Names Todd P. Sklamberg
Hospital Administrator & Chief Operating Officer

Las Vegas, NV – Sunrise Children's Hospital has announced the appointment of Todd P. Sklamberg to Hospital Administrator & Chief Operating Officer for Sunrise Children's Hospital effective April 7, 2008.

“As the only dedicated children's hospital in Nevada, Sunrise Children's Hospital has an outstanding reputation for providing exceptional healthcare services for the youth of the Southwest,” said Sylvia Young, president of Sunrise Health in HCA's Far West Division. “It is a pleasure to welcome such a dynamic and accomplished healthcare leader to Sunrise Children's Hospital to further advance our mission to provide top-notch, quality children's healthcare.”

Since 1992, Sklamberg has served as the vice president of operations and facilities at St. Louis Children's Hospital, a 250-bed children's hospital affiliated with Washington University School of Medicine and a member of the BJC HealthCare System, in St. Louis, Missouri. As vice president of operations, Sklamberg was responsible for many of the day-to-day operations of the hospital including strategic planning and business development, physician services, radiology, child health advocacy and outreach, and offsite operations and services.

Before joining St. Louis Children's Hospital, Sklamberg served as senior marketing and planning director for Citicorp Mortgage, Inc. in St. Louis, Missouri; and as a Medical Research Technician for Maimonides Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York.

"It is an honor to join the premier children's hospital of the Southwest," said Sklamberg. "I look forward to sharing in the passion and commitment of the dedicated staff who continue to raise the bar in women's and children's healthcare services.

Sklamberg earned his bachelor's degree in Psychology and Biology from Hofstra University in Hempstead, New York. He earned his master's degree in business administration from Washington University Graduate School of Business in St. Louis, Missouri.

Sklamberg serves on the Board of Directors for Ronald McDonald Charities in St. Louis, Missouri. He is also active on the boards of Healthcare for Kids, a primary care and urgent care practice, and on the board of several Washington University Medical Center committees.

Sklamberg will relocate to Las Vegas with his wife, Jennifer, and their two children.
